1974 MEMORIES

PUBLISHED BY THE ANNUAL STAFF

Riverside High School
Decatur County, Tennessee

Be glad when you can Spend these days
With people you love
And with people who love you-

For life is made of Young smiles and Shared memories
Of hard times together.

DECATUR COUNTY SCHOOL BOARD

Without these leaders, our school could not be. They are the ones who keep the school running smoothly and efficiently. Sometimes we students give them a hard way to go, but we all know we couldn't get along without them. They are well worth our appreciation and admiration.

MRS. PEGGY HAYES, Secretarial Aide

We deeply appreciate Mrs. Peggy Hayes and Mrs. Sue Bibbs for their courteous and efficient work in our office.

MRS. SUE BIBBS, Secretarial Aide

Mrs. Alice Reid is an important person at RHS. She is always ready to assist students in any way she can.

MRS. ALICE REID, Guidance Counselor

You ought to see him on the field!

Is that a halo above your head, Carson?

When asked where the party was they could have replied, "Coach Howard's room."

Mr. Lackey teaching Physics.

Why have you got that football between your legs Coach Howard?

Here we see some of the Freshmen furthering their education in class, in study hall, in the library, in the gym, with friends, and on a flagpole!?!

You can't keep trouble from coming, but you don't have to give it a chair to sit on!

To R. H. S

Byron Pussert

All problems become smaller if you don't dodge them, but confront them. Touch a thistle timidly and it will prick you; grasp it and its spine crumble.

"A minute of thought is worth more than an hour of talk . . ."

Each new day is an opportunity to start all over again . . .

To cleanse our minds and hearts anew and to clarify our visions. And let us not clutter up today with yesterday's leavings.

DESIDERATA

Go placidly amid the noise and haste, and remember what peace there may be in silence. As far as possible without surrender be on good terms with all persons. Speak your truth quietly and clearly; and listen to others, even the dull and ignorant; they too have their story. Avoid loud and aggressive persons, they are vexations to the spirit. If you compare yourself with others, you may become vain and bitter; for always there will be greater and lesser persons than yourself. Enjoy achievements as well as your plans. Keep interested in your own career, however humble; it is a real possession in the changing fortunes of time. Exercise caution in your business affairs; for the world is full of trickery. But let this not blind you to what virtue there is; many persons strive for high ideals; and everywhere life is full of heroism. Be yourself. Especially, do not feign affection. Neither be cynical about love; for in the face of all aridity and disenchantment it is perennial as the grass. Take kindly the counsel of the years, gracefully surrendering the things of youth. Nurture strength of spirit to shield you in sudden misfortune. But do not distress yourself with imaginings. Many fears are born of fatigue and loneliness. Beyond a wholesome discipline, be gentle with yourself. You are a child of the universe, no less than the trees and the stars; you have a right to be here. And whether or not it is clear to you, no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should. Therefore be at peace with God, whatever you conceive Him to be, and whatever your labors and aspirations, in the noisy confusion of life, keep peace with your soul. With all its sham, drudgery, and broken dreams, it is still a beautiful world. Be careful. Strive to be happy.
